

Politics in the Pub

BUILD A BETTER FUTURE
FIGHT FOR OUR LIVING STANDARDS

Ged Kearney

President, Australian Council of Trade Unions will speak about how we can Build a Better Future for Australia.

Keynote Speaker

FREE ADMISSION!
Light snacks provided

The Oriental Hotel, 112 Macquarie Rd, SPRINGWOOD
From 6pm Tuesday 31st May 2016

includes a Question and Answer opportunity.

Toni Clark - Education

a local parent active in the P&Cs of Katoomba Primary & High Schools, Toni Clark will speak about the achievements of Gonski school funding in the Blue Mountains & why it's important to go "the full Gonski".

Peter Buckney - Health

a Blue Mountains nurse concerned about the future of our health care, aged care and Medicare.

Warren Ross - Full Employment

has been involved, over the years, in many activities to build a better future for the Blue Mountains community including the Winter Magic Festival, Blue Mountains Community Gardens, Local Exchange Trading System, Katoomba Planning Charrette, "Your Rights at Work" campaign and Midnight Basketball. Warren questions government policies which increase underemployment and insecure work.

Bronwyn Couch - Privatisation

a worker in disability services, Bronwyn questions the Government's policies of privatisation, and its effect on services and workers.

Media enquiries: D Smith bmucinc@gmail.com 0408 238 586

Australian
Unions
Join. For a better life.

blue mountains
BMUC inc
unions council

Join a Union - 1300 486 466

Authorised by K Cooke, President Blue Mountains Unions Council Inc. 52 Great Western Hwy Mount Victoria 2786